2	How will early years setting / school / college staff support my child/young person?	Our governors/trustees &amp; play an active role in monitoring the quality of our special educational needs provision. As does the Head teacher, senior leadership team and SENCo. All interventions we put in place are research informed and evidence based and are measured to monitor impact &amp; attendance against expected rate of progress. Where we feel something isn't working, we are quick to respond and find alternatives through dialogue with the learner and their families. All our additional support programmes are overseen by the SENCo and all our teachers are teachers of inclusion and special educational needs.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Intervention groups are planned, delivered, measured and evaluated thoroughly termly by support and teaching staff</li> <li>Intervention programs are monitored by the Inclusion Leader</li> <li>The school day is maximised to offer a variety of intervention programs</li> <li>Parents are informed about which intervention programs their child will be attending and further information is available on the school website</li> <li>All staff promote inclusion. Staff plan, deliver and monitor lessons/activities to measure their impact on children with/without SEN/D</li> <li>The SEN/D governor meets bi-annually with the Inclusion Leader and is informed of regular updates though weekly meetings with the Head teacher and termly reports from the Head teacher</li> <li>Outside agencies play an active role in supporting children and parents in the school</li> </ul>
3	How will the curriculum be matched to my child's/young person's needs?	Differentiation is embedded in our curriculum and practice. We have a tailored personalised curriculum and regular Learner Progress Meetings help us to monitor this and reflect on the next best steps. All our teachers are clear on the expectations of wave 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Pupil progress meetings are held termly with teaching staff and SLT enabling progress to be monitored closely</li> <li>SLT monitor wave 1 provision through learning</li> </ul>

4	How will I know how my child/young person is doing and how will you help me to support my child's/young person's learning?	We regularly share progress feedback with all our learners and their families. In addition, we have a number of opportunities where parents/carers can meet with staff to discuss learner progress. At such at meetings (and through other means) we clearly share what can be done by families at home to supporting the learning at school. This is also reinforced by generic updates on the curriculum which we share through our newsletter and/or website. We host a number of curriculum evenings/learning events to help families understand what learning is expected and how they can best support their child/young person's need. Should more regular contact be required, our staff will make suitable arrangements to ensure this is put in place. We believe in supporting the development of parenting skills and as such deliver workshops on site/work in collaboration with other agencies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Each child on the SEN/D register has a Surrey SEND Support Arrangement document which details their needs, history and provision.
